D.C. AREA WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE MEETING

The D.C. Area planning meeting for the 1977 White House Conference on Handicapped Individuals will meet at the Washington Hilton Hotel on December 15th and 16th.

This is an opportunity for all area handicapped persons to voice their needs and concerns and share in the planning for the upcoming national meeting.

For transportation, more information, or other special services, contact either Melvin Joyner, State Director, at 629-5608 (or write to him at 122 C Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001, or Alma Missouri at 254-6345.

DEAF AWARENESS WEEK

Don't forget this is Deaf Awareness Week at the Martin Luther King Public Library. The Linguistics Research Lab of Gallaudet will have a week-long display on American Sign Language in the Library lobby. There will be exhibits of art by deaf persons and information about various services and programs for deaf persons offered by local organizations.

For further information, hearing people may call 727-1186. Deaf people may call Alice Hagemeyer on TTY- 727-2255.

TAX-TIME IS COMING

Getting ready to do your 1976 Income Tax? Have questions? Don't forget that the IRS has instituted nation-wide toll-free TTY tax assistance. You may call Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m.-6:45 p.m. EST. The number to call is 800-428-4732.

CAID-CEASD

The Joint Board of the CAID-CEASD will be meeting Friday, Dec. 10th, at Kendall and MSSD. They will hear presentations by administrators and staff of both schools and will tour the new MSSD.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

"The Hands of Christmas" an all-student sign/song group will participate in a Christmas concert at Walter Reed Army Hospital on Dec. 12th.

The same group will join with another campus group which calls itself "Joyful Sign" to entertain in the Pageant of Peace on the Elipse near the White House. They will be part of the evening program on December 18th at 8:00 p.m.

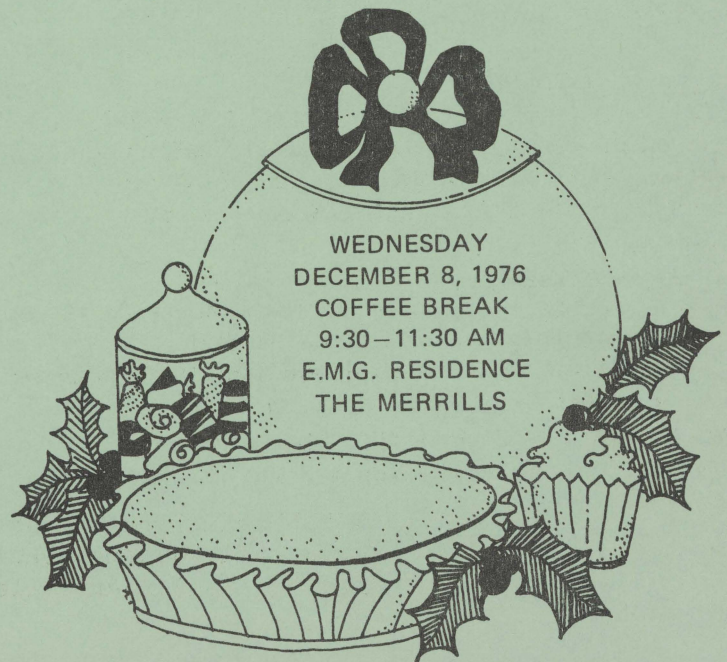

60 Minutes FEEDBACK

As expected, both the College and CBS have been receiving letters and phone calls in response to the "60 Minutes" program segment on Gallaudet.

Paul Harvey, syndicated radio reporter, has called and is planning to do a feature on the Gallaudet football team. "To Tell the Truth," the long-running game show, called to ask if a College administrator would appear on that show.

We have received calls from parents of deaf children, and inquiries from employers interested in hiring Gallaudet graduates.

Do you have any inquiries to share?

GALLAUDET DAY

Dec. 10th is Gallaudet Day. A special program, honoring Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, will be held in front of Chapel Hall at 7:30 a.m. The Preparatory Class is in charge of the program.

That evening, at 8:00 p.m. in the Library, there will be a joint meeting of the D.C. Chapter of the Gallaudet College Alumni Association and the Alexandria-Potomac Lions Club. It will be both groups' Christmas meeting. Frank Turk is president of the A-P Lion's Club.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

The Physical Plant Dept. has installed nine lamps of a new type in the pole lamps at the south end of the Mall. They would appreciate your comments on your ability to distinguish persons and objects within the range of these lamps, as well as to their aesthetics. Please send your reactions to J.H. Hull, Central Utilities Building.

MOCK TRIAL

The Law and the Deaf Class conducted a mock trial at Georgetown Law School on Nov. 23rd. Students from Gallaudet played the roles of lawyers, witnesses, and defendant in a mock criminal case before a jury of law students and lawyers from the School. Students participating were Cheryl Poff, Alice Sykora, Bob Fenske, Bob Boernke, Richard Cunnien, Kathy Kidder, Kathryn Marsh, and Chris Laniyan.
